Saratoga Springs, NY. - Jun. 11, 2018 - Esteemed equine hospital Rood & Riddle is pleased to announce its Saratoga location will serve as the official Equine Hospital for the duration of the 2018 Vermont Summer Festival. The Vermont Summer Festival is a popular six-week series featuring hunter, jumper, and equitation competition. The series kicks off over the July 4th holiday and will run through mid-August.

The series is located in the stunning mountain ranges of East Dorset, Vermont and offers elite show opportunities to equestrians from all over the country. The festival is inclusive of all levels of competition, offering divisions such as the .65m jumpers to competitive grand prix as well as professional and amateur hunter divisions. Vermont is a prime location for equestrians looking to stay competitive in the summer season and provides one of the most unique facilities in the Northeast.
